Millions of children are suffering and dying unnecessarily – from violence, disease, hunger, war and disaster.

By supporting UNICEF, you are helping to provide medicine, life-saving food and protection for children in danger now and building a safer world for children tomorrow.

Dear School Councillors,

I have been asked by the members of the Parent, Pupil and Community Committee of Orchard Schools governing body to congratulate you all on your first report. We read it with great interest and are very pleased to see how you are carrying out your responsibilities. You are certainly thinking of some excellent activities for the school, including your own newsletter, and it is good to see you are planning ahead as well.

We look forward to reading your next report.

With Best Wishes,

Alison Hatt

(Chair of the PCC Committee)
